Couldn't Lift Ten Pounds.

Doan's Kidney Pills Brought Strength and Health to the Sufferer, Making Him Feel Twenty-Five Years Younger.

Sick kidneys cause a weak, lame or aching back, and a weak back makes a weak man. Can't be well and strong until the kidneys are cured. Treat them with Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's the testimony of one man cured.

J. B. CORTON.

I could have raised ten pounds of weight from the ground, the pain was so severe. This was my condition when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They quickly relieved me and now I am never troubled as I was. My back is strong and I can walk or ride a long distance and feel just as strong as I did twenty-five years ago. I think so much of Doan's Kidney Pills that I have given a supply of the remedy to some of my neighbors and they have also found good results. I can say with confidence that anything from this rambling note that will be of any service to you, or to any one suffering from kidney trouble, you are at liberty to do so.

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Corton will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address: Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

The Paragraph Pulpit.

BY EDWIN A. RUMBALL.

Can we scientifically prove that man is immortal? No. What proofs are there that it is proved because Jesus is said to have risen from the dead. Others say it is proved because all people in all lands have desired it. Let us examine the first. How can we prove that Jesus rose from the dead? Our Bible records all contradict each other, thus our materials are not trustworthy. If they were the historical research necessary for verification would be too hard or impossible to most. Then we find that the gods of other nations rose from the dead and we have no adequate evidence for them or Jesus.

The desire for immortality is no proof that we are immortal. Desire for a thing never proves that we shall possess it. If it was so the Hindu and Buddhist would have extinction in Brahman, the simple minded Christian would have his golden crown and the man who longed for annihilation would be so dealt with. Grand conclusions are not necessarily true conclusions. Then with all our desires and innate convictions devoid of proof can we trust them seeing that they come from the mind of man, who has himself evolved from the lower species? We have therefore no proof that man is immortal. This is the point that religious truth must ever come to. We cannot prove that God is love or that man is immortal. Science is forcing the church to her only refuge—Faith, and only by faith shall the church live with life.

Next week will be our last paragraph upon immortality.

To the Patrons of Waterford Creamery
 Patrons: We are not making enough butter to supply our trade. Customers who are turned off now are not likely to come back when butter is more plentiful. It is of great importance to us that this trade be held. We can do this only by each patron making every effort to produce all the cream he can at this time. Will you do so?

Cattle Show Season.
 There is a Harvest Home and an Old Home Flavour to the Fair.
 There has been considerable ground for criticism of the character of some of the agricultural programs in various sections of the state, but the Oxford County exhibition has not yet forfeited its claim to be regarded as an agricultural institution. It is true, it has greatly enlarged its side shows. It has broad-end its midway and increased its attractions, but on the other hand, while large displays, the horses, cattle, swine, sheep and poultry are so much in excess of past exhibits that many can find only in the open accommodation for their stock.
 What used to be known as the cattle show has radically changed in character, and it is a question much debated whether it has not also lost value through this change. At the larger fairs a midway is now regarded as indispensable as a poultry house, and perhaps its place is legiti-mate when we consider the more highly stimulated tastes of the present generation.
 The difficulty appears in striking a reasonable balance. In the rural district the fair still retains a large social value and presents opportunities for wholesome and neighborly mixing that are none too plenty in the lives of farmers and their families. It has an Old Home flavor about it, the Harvest Home of its section, and no doubt helps to brighten existence for its patrons.
 The interests of more advanced and enlightened farming are provided for in other ways. It is more necessary to spread instruction in principles and methods than it is to show results through object lessons, the achievements of fancy farming which may do as much to discourage as to cheer the ordinary husbandman who depends upon his acres for a living.
 The emphasis of this year's fairs will probably rest largely upon the stock exhibits. It has been a bad season for the regular farm products, fruit, vegetables and the like, but there will be the usual crop of satisfactions among those who attend.

 Costs $50 to be a Sucker.
 It has leaked out that the series of portraits entitled "Men of the Hour" and accompanied by a few lines of atrocious doggerel, now running every day in the leading state paper of Maine, cost the victim just $50 each. With all due respect for the most eminent men of the Pine Tree state who are thus purchasing fame at $50 per head, we would suggest that a more appropriate heading for the cartoons would be: "There's a Sucker Born Every Minute."
